Mr Loughlin, Year Group Leader of Learning

Hello, I'm Mr Loughlin,

Hobbies and interests: I enjoy watching football and support Sutton United. I'll try not to be grumpy if they lose! I like running and cycling, so you might see me out around Epsom.

People describe me as: Hard-working, caring and funny. Sorry if I make any rubbish jokes but I'm just trying to help us all have fun!

What is important to me: I love to see children putting in their best effort and showing good manners. It's important to me that my class is happy so I'll work very hard to help with that.

What I am reading at the moment: I'm just starting 'Song for a Whale' by Lynne Kelly. I'm in a book club so read lots of different types of books, including ones I don't get to choose – recently, we've read an Agatha Christie mystery and a true story told through letters.

What we might do together:

We have got lots of fun learning and themes of learning to discover together. I love giving you creative control over how you lay out your work, so you get the chance to show your independence and make your own positive choices about your work. I'm a big believer in a happy class being a productive class, so I will work hard to make sure you're feeling your best at school. Sometimes, you might get to choose where you sit!
