Monday – Wednesday – Mrs McClelland

What we might do together:

There are interesting themes we will be learning about in year 4. I am fascinated by Greek mythology and the Second World War, so I am looking forward to us learning exciting facts and information about them together. There are great stories that will keep you captivated and wanting to hear more of it! If you like camping and doing fun outdoor activities such as survival skills, then you will surely enjoy it at High Ashurst in the summer term!

Hello, I'm Mrs McClelland

Hobbies and interests: I enjoy going for long walks with family and friends. I love taking photos of nature and spending time in the garden growing and looking after plants.

People describe me as: Calm, kind and fair. They also tell me that I'm a good listener and enjoy a funny joke too!

What is important to me: My family, friends and helping others is important to me. Good manners and treating others how you want to be treated goes a long way.

What I am reading at the moment: I am in between books at the moment, but I enjoy a range of books like David Walliams' light hearted, yet sensitive, look at life stories to historically based stories showing peoples' perseverance and resilience despite a difficult start.

Thursday – Friday – Mrs Glaister

What we might do together: There will be lots of new learning this year as we begin using our new Curriculum Compendiums - you'll find it hard to pick your favourite subject! Our class texts are brilliant; you will love being hooked into the stories and will be desperate for more with every chapter we read! I've just come back from High Ashurst, so I can confidently say what an amazing time you'll have there. The activities are so much fun and the breakfast is yummy! I'm looking forward to having you all in my class in September.

Hello, I'm Mrs Glaister,

Hobbies and interests: I love to crochet – anything from soft toys to baby clothes and even postbox hats! I enjoy looking after the plants in my garden. I have a black belt in taekwondo!

People describe me as: Organised, bubbly and a little bonkers! Whilst I run quite a tight ship at school, I also love to be a bit silly to help you remember things and bring the learning to life!

What is important to me: Honesty, respect and manners are values that are important to me. All of these things cost nothing but are worth their weight in gold!

What I am reading at the moment: I am currently reading The Outlaw – Variak Paw with my class. It's quite a long book and we've been reading it together since just before Christmas! Having read the book that comes before it, I'm excited to see what happens next!
