Mr Loughlin, Year Group Leader of Learning

Hello, I'm Miss Jenkins,

Hobbies and interests: I love reading, being creative and baking yummy goodies. I am also passionate about animals so can't wait to hear about all your pets!

People describe me as: Smiley, kind and hard-working. I love how each day is different at school and how everyone can shine using their own strengths.

What is important to me: I think it is important to be kind, polite and helpful to everyone around you. I value resilience and am impressed when children try their hardest and don't give up.

What I am reading at the moment: At home I am reading a classic book called 'Mansfield Park' for a book club. In class we are reading 'Fizzbert Stump: The Boy Who Ran Away From the Circus' as we were inspired by the author A.F Harrod when he came into school!

What we might do together:

We will learn lots of new exciting things in Year 3. I especially love some of our history enquiry questions and learning all about The Tudors and Henry VIII. For our school trip we even get to stay on a Tudor ship! In Year 3, we also complete some fantastic art, such as drawing in the style of Quentin Blake and creating Barbara Hepworth inspired sculptures. Together we will earn gems for a class treat, challenge ourselves across the curriculum and read lots of stories.
