Mrs Temlett
Year Group Leader of Learning

Hello, I'm Mrs Temlett,

Hobbies and interests: I enjoy painting and drawing in my sketchbook and keeping active with Pilates, cycling and swimming. I have two children and a fluffy Spanish Water Dog called Lyra.

People describe me as: Fun, kind and fair. I love learning and helping people. When the rules are clear, we can focus on enjoying ourselves as we learn together.

What is important to me: I want our classroom to be full of kindness and teamwork. It is also important that we have fun and get to be ourselves. 5T is a place to celebrate our differences.

What I am reading at the moment: 'Dark Skies' by Tiffany Francis-Baker, which is all about the natural world at night time; and The 22 Letters by 'Clive King', a mystery story about the alphabet set in the ancient world (and by the same author as 'Stig of the Dump').

What we might do together:

We will learn many interesting and exciting things: going back in time to discover more about the Romans and journeying to the stars when we study Space. Get ready to sing your heart out when we join the world's largest children's choir at the O2 Young Voices concert. There will be many creative and sporting opportunities. As we work hard and play hard, we will collect marbles to earn class treats such as extra play.
