Mr Loughlin, Year Group Leader of Learning

Hello, I'm Miss Wood,

My hobbies and interests: I love sports, and particularly enjoy Yoga. I enjoy hiking in the countryside, visiting new countries and spending time with my family and friends.

People describe me as: kind, calm and caring. I am also enthusiastic and particularly enjoy teaching history and geography.

What is important to me: It's important to me that people are kind and respectful towards others. Also that people try hard in their learning, so they can be the best they can be!

My favourite books: I love the story 'Alone on a Wild Wild Sea' by Michael Morpugo. It's set in the country Australia, and it's about a boy who when he's older builds a yacht so his daughter can try and find his long lost sister.

What we might do together:

I'm so excited to be teaching you all in Year 3 - we will be doing so many fun things! We will be learning about the Anglo Saxons, the Vikings and the Tudors. We will also get to go to the Golden Hinde as part of our History topic, what a great experience it will be. We will learn about lots of inspirational artists and have a go at creating some artwork like theirs and we'll find out about famous scientists too.
