Local Parent Carer Forum

Find your local parent carer forum to find guidance, support & information on how families like yours are being supported locally.

Let yourself feel all your feelings to let them pass. All are valid.

3 positive actions to take.

1. Discover & read "Welcome to Holland" by Emily Perl Kingsley.
2. Order a Sunflower Lanyard for support when out & about.
3. Take part in some real self-care; you can't pour from an empty cup.

Things to research & look into at a later date...

- Disability Living Allowance [DLA].
- Educational, Health & Care Plan [EHCP].
- Makaton - a unique language programme that uses symbols, signs and speech to enable people to communicate.
- AAC & Objects of reference to aid communication.
- Gestalt Language Processing [GLP] - the way many autistic individuals learn & process language.

You don't have to be an autism expert on Day One - or ever. In time you will discover & learn all you need to know to best support your child.

At times all that you need to learn & do can feel overwhelming, but just remember... you're the very best parent for your child.

You know them best.

When you can, I would highly recommend learning about sensory differences. Over time, I have learnt that regulation is one of the most important things you can support your child with.

Remember your child is the child they were before their diagnosis. However, you're now equipped with the understanding to support them.

Recommended books.

The reason I jump - by Naoki
Higashida.

Your child is not broken - by Heidi Mavir

How to raise a happy autistic child - by Danielle Punter & Charlotte Chaney.

My advice to you.

Whether you do so online via Social Media or in-person via some of the groups I have shared in this flyer, my best piece of advice is to find & connect with other families like yours. You're thrown into a totally new world & having people in your life who get it will help you embrace this experience & create a positive life for your family.

When my son was officially diagnosed as autistic, just after he turned 3, I used a brilliant online service run by Scope. This was an emotional support service that shared advice whilst helping you navigate this new world.
