Easter Holiday Family Events

Theatre | Storytelling | Workshops

Make this Easter break unforgettable with a magical lineup of family events, perfect for little ones and grown-ups alike. From interactive storytelling to enchanting music and puppet theatre, there's something for every imagination to explore

Short Stories Tall Tales: The Giraffe Who Wouldn't Bath

Tuesday 31st March, 11:30am and 1:30pm

Adventure with Gerald on his hilarious sticky-icky journey while he discovers what happens when you don't have a bath. Inventive, interactive and above all, creative play for your little ones to enjoy. Ages 0-5

Family Concert - Ferdinand The Little Bull

Friday, 3rd April, 11:30am

Bilingual (English / Spanish) narrated concert, suitable for the whole family. The music of the English composer, Alan Ridout, performed on solo violin, tenderly illustrates this simple story that contains messages of peace, individuality and friendship. Ages 4+

Gaby Gulliver's Travels

Friday 10th April, 11:30am and 2:30pm

A magical shadow theatre show for children and grown-ups alike. This imaginative retelling of a classic story of a journey through strange new worlds, where Gaby discovers what it truly means to be big...and small. Ages 5+

Shadow Puppetry Workshop with Indigo Moon Theatre

Friday 10th April, 1pm – 2pm

In this creative workshop children and their carers will use light and their imaginations to design their own shadow puppets and explore how to bring them to life. Ages 5+

From one parent of an autistic child to another... keep this safe for helpful tips, supportive information & a dash of positivity when you need it most.

Support available Nationally.

Portage

Portage is a home-visiting educational service for pre-school children with SEND & their families.

www.portage.org.uk

Contact

For families with disabled children.

www.contact.org.uk

Local Parent Carer Forum

Find your local parent carer forum to find guidance, support & information on how families like yours are being supported locally.

Let yourself feel all your feelings to let them pass. All are valid.

3 positive actions to take.

1. Discover & read "Welcome to Holland" by Emily Perl Kingsley.
2. Order a Sunflower Lanyard for support when out & about.
3. Take part in some real self-care; you can't pour from an empty cup.

Things to research & look into at a later date...

- Disability Living Allowance [DLA].
- Educational, Health & Care Plan [EHCP].
- Makaton - a unique language programme that uses symbols, signs and speech to enable people to communicate.
- AAC & Objects of reference to aid communication.
- Gestalt Language Processing [GLP] - the way many autistic individuals learn & process language.

You don't have to be an autism expert on Day One - or ever. In time you will discover & learn all you need to know to best support your child.

At times all that you need to learn & do can feel overwhelming, but just remember... you're the very best parent for your child.

You know them best.

When you can, I would highly recommend learning about sensory differences. Over time, I have learnt that regulation is one of the most important things you can support your child with.

Remember your child is the child they were before their diagnosis. However, you're now equipped with the understanding to support them.

My advice to you.

Whether you do so online via Social Media or in-person via some of the groups I have shared in this flyer, my best piece of advice is to find & connect with other families like yours. You're thrown into a totally new world & having people in your life who get it will help you embrace this experience & create a positive life for your family.

When my son was officially diagnosed as autistic, just after he turned 3, I used a brilliant online service run by Scope. This was an emotional support service that shared advice whilst helping you navigate this new world.
