

Welcome to our Read Write Inc workshop

An information session for parents and carers about how you can support your child with reading at home.

Why reading is even more important than you might think.

Why reading is even more important than you might think.

Our digital world

Emphasis on academic qualifications

Widening outlook – new worlds!

A place to escape to!

Understanding ourselves

Teach a child to read and keep that child reading and we will change everything.

And I mean everything.

Fred

How do we teach the children to read and write?

- Homogenous groups that are regularly assessed to suit the children's needs.
- 9 groups across the year group – taught by Teachers and Teaching Assistants.
- All rooms have been set up with the same resources for the sessions.

Speed Sounds sessions

- Teaching of a new letter or digraph (special friend)
- Children learn a picture phrase to help learn the sound.
- Practise reading words with the new sound in
- Review reading words with sounds previously learnt
- Practise writing words with the associated sound
- Final review

What does a speed sound session look like?

We will show you what a speed sound session looks like for the children.

Please join in as the children!

Reading at home

- Reading for accuracy
 - Red words
 - Names
- Reading for pace
- Reading as a storyteller

A good reading diet

- Last and Past Stories
- Book bag books
- More Storybooks and Non-fiction
- Book Band books
- Library Books

Why read to your child?

Special time together

It's fun!

Hearing and understanding rich language

A chance to practise reading skills – to infer, predict, hypothesise...

Talking about life, the universe and everything!

Reading enjoyment

- Old and gold
- New and bold
- Keep going even once they're reading themselves.
